

09.01-04

Isaac

M. Alexander

1. I - saac, I - saac, God chose you.
 2. Re - bek - ah, Re - bek - ah, God chose you. Re -
 3. Lord, Lord, to whom did we choose you.
 4. E - sau, E - sau, God did not choose you.
 5. A - bim - i - lech, A - bim - i - lech, Phil - is - tine chose you.
 6. Ja - cob, Ja - cob, God chose you.

I - saac, I - saac, what did you do?
 bek - ah, Re - bek - ah, what did you do?
 Lord, Lord, what did you say?
 E - sau, E - sau, what did you do?
 bim - i - lech, A - bim - i - lech, what did you think?
 Ja - cob, Ja - cob, what did you do?

"I - mar - tied Re - bek - ah; Twen - ty years we had chil - dren.
 "I asked God why I felt such fight - ing in - side me.
 "Two boys will be born; the old - er serve the young - er."
 "I sold my birth - right for of red soup.
 "I en - vied I - saac; my ser - vants filled his wells.
 "I de - ceived my fath - er and stole the bless - ing.

God heard my prayer; Re - bek - ah con - ceived."
 God said, "Two na - tions a - side you."
 E - sau was born, then Ja - cob, a hair - y boy, then smooth one."
 That's how I showed leave, but I did - n't care for a God's cov - e - nant."
 I told him to leave, but then we made a for a God's cov - e - nant."
 E - sau was so ang - ry I had to get a - way."