

Noah, with His Favored Few

Joseph Hart/William B. Bradbury

♩ = 70

1. When No - ah, with his fa - vored few, Was or - dered to em -
 2. The wa - ters then might swell their tides, The bil - lows rage and
 3. In his own heart the Chris - tian puts no trust; but builds his

4

bark, Eight hu - man souls, a lit - tle crew, En - tered on board his
 4. bark, Eight hu - man souls, a lit - tle crew, En - tered on board his
 5. roar, They could not stave the as sault - ed sides Nor burst the bat - tered
 6. hopes On him that opes, and no man shuts; and shuts, and no man

8

ark. Though e' - ry part he might se - cure With bar, or bolt, or
 8. ark. Though e' - ry part he might se - cure With bar, or bolt, or
 9. door. So souls that in - to Christ be - lieve, Quick - ened by vi - tal
 10. opes. In Christ, his Ark, he safe - ly rides, Not wrecked by death or pin, To make the pre - ser - va - tion sure, Je - ho - vah shut him in.

12

 12. pin, To make the pre - ser - va - tion sure, Je - ho - vah shut him in.
 13. faith, E ter - nal life at once re - ceive, And nev - er shall see death.
 14. sin. How is it he so safe a - bides? The Lord has shut him in.

M. Alexander put the poem with the tune February 2017.