

Abraham

"Go to a land that I will show you."
This God said
to Abram.

Abram went to the land God
showed him.
He obeyed, sacrificing a lamb.

Famine left nothing to eat
in Canaan.

Down to Egypt
Abram went.

Lying about his pretty wife, Sarai, Provoked the pharaoh;
So out they were sent.

Lot's and Abram's

herdsmen
quarreled:

Too many animals for the land.

Abram said,

"You have

first choice;

If you take the right,

I'll take the left hand."

Four kings came and captured Lot,
But Abram's
men, armed to the neck,

Caught those kings, Released the captives.

Abram gave tithes to $\frac{1}{10}$

Melchisidek.

“Count the stars;

So many children

You will have.”

This God said.

“Hagar can be like a wife,”
said Sarai.

Ishmael was born; then Sarai was sad.

God changed the names of Abram and Sarai:
Abraham and Sarah their names would be.

Three visitors said they'd have a baby.

Sarah laughed.

But we'll wait
and see.

Sodom and Gomorrah
were wicked cities. Angels warned Lot to get away.

Lot's wife
turned back,
became a salt
pillar.

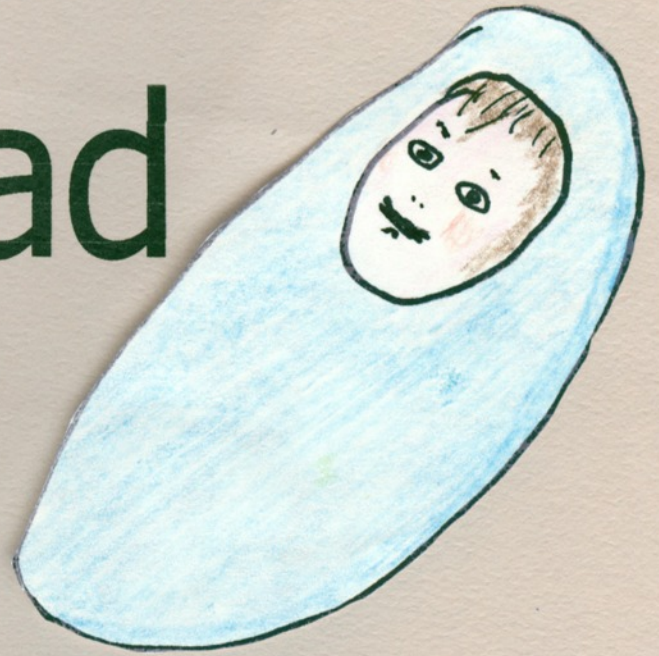

The cities
burned up;

They are gone
to this day.

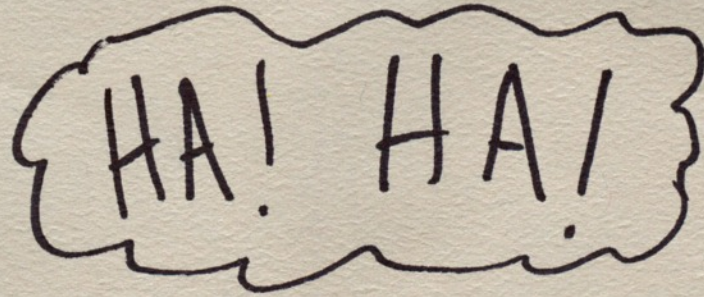

Finally,
Abraham and Sarah had Isaac.

“Abe” was 100;
Sarah, 90
years old.

"God has made me laugh,"
said Sarah;

HA! HA!

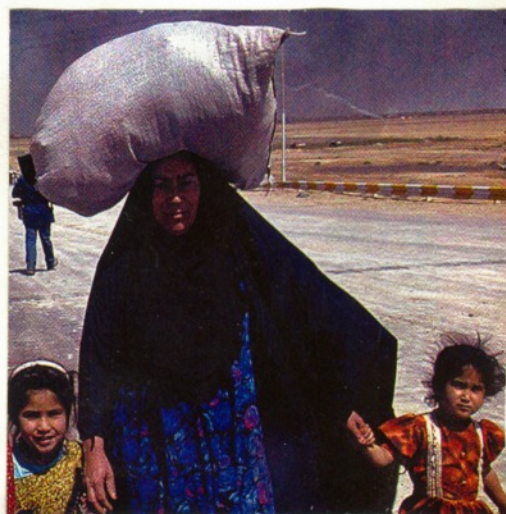

For He fulfilled
what He had foretold.

Ishmael mocked his half-brother, Isaac.
Sarah said, “Send him and Hagar away!”

They survived the desert's dangers;
Ishmael's children are called Arabs
today.

😊 "Go to a mount in the land of Moriah."

God was to test
His friend,
Abraham.

Abraham was ready to sacrifice Isaac.
God made him stop and provided a ram.

Sarah had died.

It was time for

Isaac to find and marry a suitable wife.

One named Rebekah
watered all the camels.

She married

Isaac: they were one for life.
