

"Who Am I?" Cards
for the Books of Judges and Ruth

Who Am I? (14.08)

1. I started my married life in Bethlehem.
2. I had two sons.
3. My husband and two sons died after we moved to Moab.
4. I moved back to Bethlehem with my daughter-in-law, Ruth.

(Naomi)

Who Am I? (14.08)

1. My husband and father-in-law died.
2. I moved to Bethlehem with my mother-in-law.
3. I met and married a man named Boaz.
4. Our son, Obed, was the grandfather of King David.

(Ruth)

Who Am I? (14.08)

1. I am a barley and wheat farmer.
2. I am from Bethlehem.
3. I am a kinsman of Elimelech.
4. I married Ruth and became the great grandfather of King David.

(Boaz)

Which Judge Am I? (14.03)

1. I was the first judge.
2. My father-in-law was Caleb, and I earned my wife after defeating giants.
3. As judge I defeated Mesopotamia.
4. Israel had rest 40 years after I was judge.

(Othniel)

Which Judge Am I? (14.04)

1. I was the second judge of Israel.
2. I became judge after Moab, Amalek, and Ammon subdued Israel.
3. I told fat Eglon, king of Moab, I had a secret message for him from God.
4. I killed the king of Moab with a dagger in my left hand. I was left-handed.

(Ehud)

Which Judge Am I? (14.07)

1. Only one verse in Judges is written about me.
2. I am the third judge.
3. The Philistines had subdued Israel when I was judge.
4. I killed 600 Philistines with an ox goad.

(Shamgar)

Who Am I? (14.05)

1. I stole 1100 pieces of silver from my mother.
2. I confessed my crime when Mother cursed me.
3. We made an idol from some of the silver.
4. Danites stole my priest and my idols.

(Micah)

Which Tribe Am I? (14.06) 1. One of my towns, Gibeah, was extremely wicked. 2. A Levite gathered all Israel in war against me. 3. All but 600 of my men were slain. 4. Israel had to think of clever ways to get wives for these 600 men. (Benjamin)	Who Am I? (14.09) 1. I was a prophetess (a woman who prophesied). 2. I was also a female judge of Israel. 3. I told Barak to lead the army against Sisera. 4. Barak wanted me to go with him; another woman had the victory over Sisera. (Deborah)
Who Am I? (14.09) 1. I was a captain in Jabin's army. 2. I led my men against the Israelites. 3. When I lost the battle, I ran away to Jael's tent. 4. While I was asleep, Jael drove a nail into my temple, and I died. (Sisera)	Who Am I? (14.10) 1. I am a daughter-in-law of Naomi. 2. I was married to Chilion. 3. When my husband died, I went back to my own people in Moab. 4. My sister-in-law, Ruth, stayed with Naomi. (Orpah)
Who Am I? (14.09) 1. I was the fourth judge of Israel 2. I judged under a palm tree. 3. I told Barak to gather Israel at Mount Tabor. 4. I was the only woman judge. (Deborah)	Who Am I? (14.09) 1. I was told by Deborah to gather soldiers to fight. 2. I said I would not go to battle without Deborah. 3. Sisera, the enemy, escaped during battle. 4. God gave glory to a woman for the victory. (Barak)

Who Am I? (14.09) 1. I was home in my tent when Sisera, the enemy, came to me. 2. Sisera asked for water, but I gave him milk. 3. Sisera fell asleep. 4. I slew Sisera with a tent peg through his skull. (Jael)	Who Am I? (14.10) 1. I was the fifth judge. 2. While I was in a wine press, an angel talked to me. 3. I put unleavened bread, goat meat, and broth on a rock. 4. The Angel of God touched my offering and burned it. (Gideon)
Who Am I? (14.10) 1. An angel told me I would deliver Israel from the Midianites. 2. I destroyed the altar to the false god Baal. 3. When I gathered an army, God said there were too many soldiers. 4. God gave us the victory with only 300 soldiers. (Gideon)	Who Am I? (14.10) 1. Some people called me Jerubbaal, meaning “let Baal plead.” 2. I got this name because I tore down an altar to Baal. 3. I heard a Midianite tell about his dream—that I would win the battle. 4. After the war was over, I disobeyed God by making a golden ephod. (Gideon)
Who Am I? (14.14) 1. My half brothers rejected me. 2. I moved away. 3. When Israel needed an army commander, my brothers asked me to be this leader. 4. I foolishly vowed to sacrifice the first thing to meet me when I returned from winning the war. (Jephthah)	Who Am I? (14.18) 1. I was one of the last judges of Israel and fought the Philistines. 2. My parents dedicated me to the Lord, but I was a disappointment to them. 3. I slew many Philistines with the jawbone of a donkey. 4. I was the strongest man who ever lived. (Samson)s

Who Am I? (14.18) 1. I was a Philistine woman. 2. Samson loved me. 3. My Philistine countrymen offered me a reward if I could tell them the secret to Samson’s great strength. 4. I betrayed Samson to the Philistines. (Delilah)	Who Am I? (1) 1.
Who Am I? (1) 1.	Who Am I? (1) 1.